

Águeda Silva

Águeda Silva is EEA-Eionet National Focal Point (NFP) for Portugal at the Portuguese Environment Agency (APA). She took up duties in APA as legal adviser in 2012, has worked as Head of Unit and Head of Department in the topics of spatial planning and coastal zones between 2013-2019, and is working in the Department of International Affairs, since 2019, where she is also responsible for tasks related to the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development and the United Nations Environment Programme (Montevideo Environmental Law Programme).

She has a degree in Law from the Law Faculty of the University of Lisbon, a Post-Graduation in Planning, Urbanism and Environmental Law from Centre for Studies in Planning, Urbanism and Environmental Law – Law Faculty of the University of Coimbra, and a Post Post-Graduation in Water Law from Institute of Legal and Political Sciences - Law Faculty of the University of Lisbon.